

FUSION Theatre Announces our 2nd Annual Ten Minute New Play Festival
The Seven in 2007
June 21st-24th.

Thursday, Friday & Saturday at 8pm. Sunday at 2pm.

Seven new ten minute plays.
Seven different directors.
And a stellar ensemble cast of Albuquerque's finest actors.

Last Summer FUSION presented our 1st Annual New Ten Minute Play Festival, The Seven: Games People Play. A national call for entries introduced Cell audiences to world premiers of up and coming playwrights from New York, Minneapolis, Los Angeles, Seattle, and Santa Fe. The Seven is a wonderful literary sampler of American theatre's freshest voices, right here in New Mexico.

This summer, we're at it again.
Our audience has spoken: on-line voting has produced this year's theme: NO REGRETS.

GUIDELINES FOR PLAY SUBMISSIONS

Each script must be no more than ten pages long.

Plays should be inspired by the theme NO REGRETS.

Each playwright may submit up to two scripts.

Previously submitted plays, plays that have received production and any unsolicited longer one-act or full-length plays are not accepted for consideration in The Seven.

Each manuscript must be typed and individually bound or stapled. Title page must include name, address, phone number, and e-mail.

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION IS FRIDAY, APRIL 27, 2007!

Entries will be acknowledged by e-mail once they have been received by our literary manager. All playwrights will be informed of the theatres final selection no later than May 1st.

No scripts will be returned unless you include a SASE with correct postage.

The volume of scripts submitted hampers our ability to comment individually on each work; therefore we do not offer criticism.

Send your submissions to:
